

Monica Davis has been working with dogs for over 45 years, grooming since 1987 and professionally training since 1992. Monica built her pet business and reputation from the ground up through hard work and an innate ability to know the needs of dogs. She dedicates her life to their well-being and educating others about dog behavior, safety and care. Today she specializes in hard to handle behavioral issues and trains at her facility and individual homes.

Monica is a professional member of the IACP and has been serving on the conference committee since 2014. In 2015, she was honored to receive the President's and Ambassador's Awards. She is a Certified Trick Dog Trainer (CTDI) /IACP-CDT /CADT /PDTI. Monica is co-chair of the IACP Therapy Dog Committee and certified in CPR.

Monica has been honored to speak at the IACP conferences around the nation. Monica was humbled and honored to receive the 2018 Member of the year Awarded and was elected to the IACP Board of Directors for the 2019-2020 term.

Monica has volunteered at numerous shelters, rescues and humane societies around the country. She presently volunteers at the Hill Country Humane Society in her spare time.
